

Basic Tasks

1. Create a file named `student.txt`.
2. Write your name, age, and department into a file.
3. Read and display the contents of a file.
4. Append a new line of text to an existing file.
5. Delete a file if it exists.
6. Count the number of lines in a file.
7. Count the number of words in a file.
8. Count the number of characters in a file.
9. Copy the contents of one file into another file.
10. Read a file and display only the first 5 lines.
11. Develop a menu-driven program to:
 - Create a file
 - Write data into a file
 - Read data from a file
 - Append data to a file
 - Delete a file
 - Exit

Student Management

- A college wants to maintain student records in a file. Write a program to add, view, and update student detail
 - Store marks of students in a file and display all students who scored above 80%.
 - Create a student attendance register using file handling.
25. Maintain employee records in a file and display all employee details.
 26. Write a program to search for an employee using Employee ID from a file.

